Definition of Categories:

On Campus: All buildings and property owned by the College in the same contiguous geographic area of the campus. This category includes all on-campus incidents including those listed in the category "in dormitories or other student residences". The two categories are not cumulative, but duplicative.

In dormitories or other student residential facilities: Is a subset of on campus, these are crimes that are reported under on campus, but occurred in a student residence or dormitory.

Non-campus: Any building or property owned or operated by an officially recognized student group

- OR -

Any building or property owned or controlled by the College that is not within the same contiguous geographical area of the campus.

Public Property: All public property, including thoroughfares, streets, sidewalks, and parking facilities and, is within the campus, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.

Hate Crimes: are defined by the Department of Education in the Federal Register Part IX-34 CFR Part 668 as the crimes listed previously and other crimes involving bodily injury to any person in which the victim is intentionally selected because of the actual or perceived race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, ethnicity, or disability of the victim that are reported to campus authorities or local police agencies. Hate Crimes as defined, do not include bias-related incidents such as bias related graffiti or racial slurs.

The Higher Education Opportunity Act (Public Law 110-315) requires that effective with the October 1, 2010 reporting, the following crimes of larceny, theft, simple assault, intimidation and destruction/damage/ vandalism of property be added to the list of crimes that must be reported in the hate crime statistics.
